2. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Company reserves copyright and all other rights concerning 1.1) supra.

LSI Japan Co., Ltd. (hereinafter “Supplier”) reserves copyright and all other rights concerning 1.2) supra.

3. LICENSE GRANT

Subject to the terms and conditions herein, Company grants to you a non-exclusive, non-transferable, royalty-free license to use this software, and Supplier agrees to that.

- 1) This software may be used for the sole purpose of developing Add-in software for the models.
- 2) This software is provided “as is” without any express or implied warranty of any kind including, without limitation, warranties of merchantability, non-infringement or fitness for any particular purpose.
- 3) You may not decompile, reverse engineer or disassemble this software.
- 4) You may not make any modification or alteration to this software.
- 5) You are liable for all risks in relation to the quality or performance of this software.
- 6) In case any defect of this software is found, any expense derived from this is due to you.
- 7) You may not distribute this software to any third party, in any case, except Library, 1.2) supra. Library may be distributed only as Add-in software “built-in”.
- 8) You may not disclose any information acquired by using this software for any reason.

4. SUPPORT AND WARRANTY

- 1) Company or Supplier shall not give any support or warranty for this software.
- 2) Any question against this software shall not be accepted.
- 3) Company may revise the contents of this software at any time without notice.

5. LIABILITY

In no event shall Company or Supplier be liable for any damages whatsoever caused to you or the third party arising out of the use or inability to use this software. Damages include general damages, special damages, accidental damages or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of data or accuracy or unfitting interface for other programs).

6. DISTRIBUTION OF ADD-IN SOFTWARE

You or the third party may distribute Add-in software, regardless of its value (at any price or free), without any prior authorization or notice. However, do not make any statement that Add-in software is “certified”, or that its performance is guaranteed, by Company, or any similar display.

7. APPLICABLE LAWS

This agreement is governed by Japanese laws.
